

Jack Kahl Entrepreneurial Leadership Award for the Sam M. Walton Free Enterprise Fellows of the Year

Purpose

This award honors the Sam Walton Fellows from two colleges/universities who have done the most to advance the entire SIFE organization during the current academic year, who have made outstanding contributions to SIFE students and the SIFE team on their campus, including helping students with career placement.

Only one nomination per college/university will be allowed.

Nomination

Applicants must submit the following information online:

1. A cover page including the name of the award, the college/university name and the name of the nominee.
2. Letter from the president of the college or university, or from the dean/department chair explaining reasons the Sam Walton Fellow deserves this award.
3. Maximum of five letters of endorsement from current SIFE team members.
4. Two letters of recommendation from SIFE Alumni.

Recognition

The recipients will each receive a plaque, and a fully paid trip (including accommodations and airfare) to the SIFE World Cup during the current academic year, courtesy of an endowed contribution made by the adult children of former SIFE Chairman of the Board, Mr. Jack Kahl. This award will be presented at the SIFE USA National Exposition.

Entry Deadline

All entries must be received through the online application process by February 6, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. CST.
