

Unilever – Leadership Development Global Strategic Partnership

---

Program Overview

Unilever is proud to present the Leadership Development Global Strategic Partnership. This partnership provides significant leadership training, professional development and networking opportunities for top SIFE students in Brazil, China, India, Mexico, the Netherlands and the USA through various Leadership Summits.

Leadership Summit Selection Process

Only SIFE students who participate on an active and enrolled team will be eligible to participate in the Leadership Summit. Additional details will be forthcoming regarding the selection process.

Awards

One student will be offered the opportunity to attend SIFE World Cup 2012 in Washington, DC as a SIFE USA student representative under the Unilever Leadership Development Global Strategic Partnership. Details on this award will be announced at a later date.
